

Introducing Owliver

Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) would like to introduce Owliver, our mascot. He will be attending FOUCL events at the library and around town. He has already visited storytime at the library and plans to be at Meeks Park for Boo Bash, where he will be handing out candy donated by FOUCL members. Owliver has been the mascot for our organization's twenty-eight years but only recently overcame his shy bookish ways enough to join us at our activities. We are very proud of him and hope you get to meet him soon!

FOUCL and Owliver encourage you to begin making your donations for our Everything Christmas Sale. You can bring your lovingly used Christmas items during the month of October. A drop-off bin is located outside the Friend's Room door at Union County Public Library (303 Hunt Martin Street, Blairsville) and you may drop off any time during the library's normal business hours. We are not accepting artificial trees over 3 feet tall, stuffed toys, or stained or broken items. If you have any Christmas items you no longer want, please bring them in. FOUCL members will be at the library to assist or answer any questions you may have on Mondays from 10 AM until Noon and Wednesdays from 1 PM to 3 PM.

The Everything Christmas Sale is on Friday, November 1, from 10 AM until 4 PM and Saturday, November 2, from 10 AM until Noon in the Community Room at Union County Public Library. We thank you in advance for your donations and for buying at our sale. All funds raised go to support our library here in Blairsville.

FOUCL's next membership meeting, open to all members and those who might be interested in joining, is Wednesday, October 16, beginning at 1 PM in the Community Room. We invite you to join us in advocating for libraries, literacy, and lifelong learning or, as Owliver likes to say, "Give a hoot – join us!"
