Pictured here are the two library carts recently donated by the Friends of Union County Library (FOUCL) to Union County Public Library (UCPL). This was a wish and a need of the library, as many of their existing carts were not rolling properly. FOUCL thanks Coldwell Banker High Country Realty, whose generous donation made this purchase possible. Mr. King at Coldwell Banker was quoted as saying, "Coldwell Banker High Country Realty has 5 regional offices, and we are located locally at 211A Cleveland Street in Blairsville. Our company is proud to support the local community and the Union County Public Library."

Our November Everything Christmas Sale final numbers are in, and we can say it was one of our most successful yet. FOUCL thanks the many individuals, businesses, and churches who donated Christmas-related items for FOUCL to resell. Churches who contributed included: Coosa Methodist, First Methodist Church of Union County, and St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church.

New Silent Auction items were also gratefully accepted from: Terry Holton at Longhorn Steakhouse (a basket of goodies and Longhorn coupons), Liz Key at The Spa at Blueberry Hill (a spa services' certificate), and FOUCL member Karen Cassity (a basket of specially crafted reading related items – a mug, thermos, tote, and bookmark).

FOUCL also extends thanks to the many bakers and buyers at our recent Just-Before-Thanksgiving Bake Sale. We had many pies but were sold out of them early in the morning. Cakes were also very popular. Lots of breads were snatched up along with cookies, brownies, and fudge. FOUCL members like to think our bake sales turn bakery into money for books, since all proceeds from our bake sales go to UCPL.

We are fortunate to live in such a generous community.
